- 1 To provide training on communication skills and public speaking experience. We further purpose to afford each contestant an opportunity to earn a college scholarship. This is accomplished through completion of all required phases of the contest, conveying intellectual thinking, and confident delivery of an original written and oral presentation on the selected theme. The goal of the scholarship award is for students to receive a one time financial assistance with tuition, books, housing and other related costs of attending an institution for higher education.
- 2 The National Baptist Oratorical Contest will be held in person, during the National Baptist Congress of Christian Education Annual Session on Wednesday, June 19, 2025, time to be determined. We have made several updates to this year's oratorical contest guidelines and rules. An overview of these updates are detailed in the following pages.

Oratorical Contest Theme:

Serving God in an AI Age: How does AI (Artificial Intelligence) either help or hinder teenagers in serving God and sharing the Gospel

Scripture:

Romans 12:2

05 Presentation of Oration

- / The Contestant must arrive one hour before contest starts and shall have a reference copy of their speech in the holding area prior to the start of the contest.
- / The Contestants that place in the top three will meet with the Oratorical Coordinator, immediately following the contest, to complete all required documentation. At this time they will need their social security number for completion of the W9 tax form. The winner will be given instructions regarding their attendance at the Children/Youth Rally where they will be introduced and will recite the winning oration.
- / The Contestant's presentation attire is Males: Slacks, Suit Coats and Shirts with Ties and Females: Business Dresses or Suits with Hosiery (please note the contestants will be on an elevated platform facing the audience)
- / The Contestants are to stand, approach the podium, state the theme, their contestant number, their first and last name and begin their memorized rendition of the written oration, within the frame of the podium (without moving across the stage).
- / The Contestant's oratorical presentation must avoid speaking in sermonic/preaching tones, using testimonials, and excessive gesturing.
- / Contestants are not allowed to use special props, costumes, or clothing to complement their oration.

NOTE:
All due dates with the exception of the
MAY 14, 2025
deadline are flexible

06 Competition Checklist

- 1 Successfully advance through church, local, and state contests.
- 2 Ensure your church is registered to attend the National Baptist Convention, USA, Incorporated 2025 Annual Session.
- 3 Complete application and email all required documents (i.e. written oration, most recent report card and headshot) by May 14, 2025 to compete at the national oratorical contest.
- 4 Have a state representative confirm your participation and placement in the state oratorical contest through email to gtorrancenbdoratorical@gmail.com May 14, 2025.
- 5 Receive confirmation of selection.

DEFINITIONS AND EXPLANATIONS

- / SERMONIC TONES refers to “whooping” or “singing” at the conclusion or during any part of the oration.
- / TESTIMONIALS refers to framing the body or content of the speech around a personal testimony/story. This decision is made at the judges’ discretion.
- / EXCESSIVE GESTURING is determined at the judges’ discretion - contestant beware. Limit all movement, including your hands, as excessive gesturing or movement may result in disqualification.

07 Instructions to Contestants

- / The first place winner will receive $3,000, the second place winner will receive $2,000, and the third place winner will receive $1,000. All participants will receive a $100 gift card for their participation in the contest. The winners will be announced during Congress Session. All awards will be distributed through mail following the Congress.
- / The top three winning contestants will receive an email from the Oratorical Coordinator or designee immediately following the contest to complete all required documents to receive their award scholarship award (including mailing confirmation and W9 tax form). Be sure to respond in a timely manner.
- / Regardless of your opinion, the Judges' decision is final.
- / The judges are selected prior to the NBC Oratorical Contest. Each judge receives the guidelines and judge's score sheet during the judge's training session(s). Each judge is scheduled to attend a training teleconference prior to the Congress Session and will virtually attend a final review before the live contest. Each judge has attested to providing a fair and impartial scoring of each contestant.
- / The judges will use the following criteria to rank each oration: composition, subject matter, content, originality, delivery, memorization, vocal control, enunciation, pronunciation, presentation, and mastery of material. The oration must be memorized.
- / The judges will also give each contestant an intangible score (most commonly used to describe things that are not recognized but not easily quantified) and in the "event of a tie", the contestant with the highest intangible score will be the winning contestant.
