Senior Pastor Vacancy

About Us:

Founded in 1928 and located at 400 Delaware Ave. in Alamogordo, New Mexico. Corinth Baptist Church has long served as a cornerstone for individuals seeking spiritual enrichment and a sense of community. The church continues to provide a welcoming environment where members can pursue faith and build meaningful relationships with others along their spiritual journey. The church offers a wide array of services designed to nurture faith and foster eloquent connections among its members, from weekly worship services that bring the congregation together to community outreach programs that extend support to those in need. Corinth Baptist Church is deeply committed to making a positive impact.

Additionally, the church hosts various Bible study groups, each tailored to meet the needs of different ages and backgrounds, ensuring that everyone can find a space to deepen their understanding. Corinth Baptist Church strongly emphasizes inclusivity and support welcoming all individuals who wish to explore their faith further. This dedication is reflected in the church's ongoing efforts to provide spiritual education and guidance through its diverse programming.

Beyond its mission of spreading hope and love, Corinth Baptist Church cultivates a warm and inviting atmosphere, encouraging everyone to join in, participate, and grow along their faith journey. Whether someone is new to the area or a long-time resident, the church stands ready to welcome them into its supportive community.

Our Vision:

At Corinth Baptist Church, we envision a world where everyone feels loved, valued, and accepted. We strive to create a community where people can come together to worship and learn. Corinth Baptist Church serves as a vital community hub for spiritual growth and fellowship.

Corinth Baptist Church, of Alamogordo, NM is currently accepting resumes for a Senior Pastor.

- Candidates should be either licensed or, preferably, ordained ministers within the Baptist faith. This ensures a strong foundation in Baptist doctrine and aligns with the expectations for spiritual leadership in our community.
- Each week, prepare and deliver Christ-centered, Bible-based sermons for the Sunday service, offering meaningful guidance and inspiration to the congregation. Additionally, lead Bible study sessions every Wednesday, creating opportunities for deeper discussion and reflection on scripture to help foster spiritual growth within the church.
- Develop Bible studies and teachings that not only remain faithful to scripture but also address the specific needs and experiences of our congregation, ensuring that each lesson is both spiritually enriching and practically relevant.
- Participates actively in the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc., or demonstrates a willingness to become engaged with its initiatives and activities.

- Ideally, candidates should possess at least three years of ministerial experience.
- Consistently participate in staff and committee meetings to stay informed, collaborate with members of the church, and contribute to ongoing initiatives. Your active involvement ensures effective communication and helps drive the success of our shared goals.
- Demonstrate strong administrative abilities, including the capacity to effectively organize and lead staff. Exhibit excellent communication skills, both in writing and speaking.
- Engage actively in visiting church members in hospitals, nursing homes, and private homes, providing support and prayer to offer comfort and spiritual care.
- Show financial awareness and responsibility in all aspects of church operations.
- Display a willingness to participate in educational and enrichment activities to foster ongoing personal and professional growth.
- Candidates must submit copies of their license, ordination, and any relevant educational transcripts (if any).
